INDEX

Abbott, Edith, 139
Accident prevention for seamen, 184
AMERICAN LABOR'S RELATION TO THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION, Spencer Miller, Jr., 156–161
AMERICAN RELATIONS WITH THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR OFFICE, 1919–1932, James Myers, 135–145
Anderson, Mary, 138
Andrews, John B., 137
Avenol, Joseph, 29

Barnes, George N., 20
Bauer, Stephan, 12
Bibliography re United States relations with International Labor Organization, 145
Bonfield, Miss, 92
Bowers, Glenn A., 78
Brown, Percy S., 68, 141, 152
BUTLER, H. B., Introduction, 1–3; 20, 29, 67, 69, 73, 102, 103, 157, 159
  quoted, 141
Byrd, Mabel, 141

Cameron, William H., 141
Chamberlain, Joseph, 53
CHAMBERLAIN, JOSEPH P., Forced Labor, 80–85; Legislation in a Changing Economic World, 30–45; 139
CHARACTER AND ACCESSIBILITY OF OFFICE RESEARCH MATERIALS, Alice S. Cheyney, 114–118
CHEYNEY, ALICE S., A Comparison of Convention Provisions with Labor Legislation in the United States, 176–189; The Character and Accessibility of Office Research Materials, 114–118; 141
Christman, Elizabeth, 142
Civil service, international, 102–106, 125
Clark, J., 139
Clarke, William, 159
Clemenceau, Georges, 20, 22
Commons, John R., 139
COMPARISON OF CONVENTION PROVISIONS WITH LABOR LEGISLATION IN THE UNITED STATES, A, Alice S. Cheyney, 176–189
CONFERENCE AT WORK, THE, Amy Hewes, 86–94
Constitution (Part XIII of Treaty of Versailles): as defining competence of International Labor Organization, 47 interpretation of, 48, 49
  text of, 194–202
Conventions: adoption by Conference, 50, 51 application, 6, 51, 95 definition, 5 enforcement, 95–101
    annual reports from governments, 6, 42, 98–101
    by Permanent Court of International Justice, 98
    by the Governing Body, 43, 44 complaint procedure, 43, 51, 97, 98 modified for federal states, 6, 24, 39–41, 51, 52, 96 representation procedure, 6, 42, 43, 51, 96, 97 through public opinion, 44, 45 interpretation, 38, 39
  nonratification, reasons for, 7
  preparation, 35–37
  provisions, 177–187
  ratification, 5, 6, 37, 51, 95
    chart of, 206, 207
  revision, 37, 38
  sample text, 202–204
  subjects of, 16, 17, 82, 177
Court decisions: Canadian, re federal authority in labor legislation, 55
  re competence of International Labor Organization, 47, 48
Currency stability necessary to economic recovery, 63, 64

Delevingne, Malcolm, 20
Dennison, H. S., 68, 139, 151, 152
Depression, economic, see Economic depression
Devinat, Paul, 67, 68, 69, 151
Dietrich, Miss E. B., 141
Disarmament, economic aspects of, 129, 130
Doak, William N., 138
Dorset, M., 137
Draft conventions, see Conventions
Drummond, Eric, quoted, 124, 131
DUAL NATURE OF RESEARCH ACTIVITIES, THE, Leifur Magnusson, 107–113

Economic depression: and the International Labor Organization, 63–65, 93 international aspect of, 1, 3 lessons of, 1–3 monetary factor in, 63 problems emphasized by, 168–170
Economic planning: international, 72, 73, 133 movement for, 67
  See also Scientific management
Ely, Richard T., 135
Emigrants, inspection of, 184
EMPLOYERS OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION, THE, T. G. Spates, 146–155

ENFORCEMENT OF INTERNATIONAL LABOR STANDARDS, THE, Francis G. Wilson, 95–101

Fairchild, Henry Pratt, 139
Federal countries in relation to the International Labor Organization, 6, 24, 39–41, 51, 52, 55, 96
Feis, Herbert, 15, 141
Filene, Edward A., 68, 140, 142, 151
  quoted, 152
Finances: expenses met by League of Nations, 46
Fontaine, Arthur, 157
FORCED LABOR, Joseph P. Chamberlain, 80–85
Ford, Henry, 74
Ford Inquiry, see International Cost-of-Living Inquiry
Frankfurter, Felix, 23
Furuseth, Andrew, 24, 141, 158

Gardner, Leroy U., 139
Gay, Edwin F., 139
Gompers, Samuel, 13, 21–23, 25, 136, 137, 142, 156–161
Governing Body: procedure of, 4, 5, 37, 43, 44
  structure of, 4, 50, 120
Government control of economic processes, 26, 27, 153
Green, William, 159
  quoted, 161
Greenwood, Ernest H., 138, 141
Grimshaw, 81
Gulick, Sidney L., 139

HAAN, HUGO, Scientific Management and Economic Planning, 66–74
  cited, 73
Hamilton, Alice, 139
HANNA, HUGH S., The International Cost-of-Living Inquiry, 162–167
  cited, 110
Hayhurst, E. R., 139
HEWES, AMY, The Conference at Work, 86–94
Hoffmann, F. L., 139
Hoover, Herbert, 140, 141, 159
House, Edward Mandell, 23
HOW THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION OPERATES, E. J. Phelan, 4–9
Hudson, Manley O., 138
Hurlbutt, Marie, 139
Hurley, Edward N., 146, 157
Husband, W. W., 139

Industrial relations: causes of increased interest in, 76 national postwar improvement in, 75, 76 philosophy of, in United States, 149, 150, 153 studies by International Labor Office, 77–79
INTERNATIONAL CIVIL SERVICE, AN, Royal Meeker, 102–106
INTERNATIONAL COST-OF-LIVING INQUIRY, THE, Hugh S. Hanna, 162–167
  coöperation of United States with International Labor Office, 140, 152, 153
  Detroit survey, 162, 163
  European investigation financed by Edward Filene, 140, 152
  European survey, 164–166 importance of, 152
  results, 166, 167
INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC ORGANIZATION, Felix Morley, 26–29
International Labor Conference: and research, 111 difficulties of, 86, 87
  procedure of, 5, 35, 36, 87
  structure of, 50, 86
  success of, 87, 88
  votes in, analyzed, 88–91
International Labor Office: erroneously connected with radical socialism, 102 handicaps of, 102
  procedure of, 4, 5, 35, 36
  staff, 4, 114
    recruiting of, 104–106
  structure of, 50, 103, 104, 109
  success of, 102, 103
  United States relations with, 135–145
INTERNATIONAL LABOR OFFICE AND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS, THE, G. A. Johnston, 75–79 International Labor Organization: accomplishment of, 7–9, 15–17, 65 competence of, 47–49, 93, 94 distinctive features of, 52 history of, 18–25, 135–137 membership in, 46 number of members, 8 necessity for, 18
  non-authoritative character of, 49, 52
  objectives of, 4, 46, 66, 74, 121, 122, 168 relations with League of Nations, 46, 63–65, 93, 94, 124–134 subjects of coöperation, 128–134
  structure of, 4, 50
  See also United States relations with the I. L. O.
INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION AND UNEMPLOYMENT, THE, Bryce M. Stewart, 53–65
INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION AS AN ALTERNATIVE TO VIOLENT REVOLUTION, THE, James T. Shotwell, 18–25
International Management Institute: formation of, 68 relations with International Labor Office, 68–70 Internationalism: in commerce, 30 in investments, 30

in labor standards, 30–34, 148
INTRODUCTION, H. B. Butler, 1–3

Jenks, J. W., 139
Johnson, Bascom, 139
JOHNSTON, G. A., The International Labor Office and Industrial Relations, 75–79; 104 cited, 54
Jordan, Virgil, 168
Jouhaux, L., 69, 94

Kober, G., 139
Krawtchenko, cited, 11

Labor: conditions improved through work of International Labor Organization, 7, 8, 16, 17 contract, 83
convict, 83, 84
forced: analogous to slavery, 80, 129 convention on, 82, 83 defined, 82
prohibited under Mandates, 80
United States and, 84, 85, 182
in mandated territories, 80, 128, 129 intellectual workers, 128 international uniform minimum standards, need for, 30, 31, 129 postwar demands of, 18, 19 standards in the United States, 31, 32, 84 child labor, 178–180
compared with those in other countries, 148–150, 176, 187, 188 days of rest, 181
hours of work, 179–182
white lead, use of, 184
white phosphorus, use of, 136, 182 women and children, protection of, 130, 178–182 workers in countries other than their own, 130
See also Seamen
Languages, variety in International Labor Office, 4
Larned, Ruth, 139
Laughlin, H. H., 139
League of Nations: and forced labor, 80, 81 compared with International Labor Organization, 27–29 economic organization of, 28, 29
See also International Labor Organization
Leary, John J., 140
Lee, F. S., 139
LEGAL COMPETENCE OF THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION, Jean Morellet, 46–52
Legislation: of International Labor Conference, scope of, 92–94 principles of, 119
re labor: drafting of, assisted by International Labor Organization, 122, 123 grounds for, 10, 30–32
in United States, 176–189
international, 11–16, 33, 34, 119
LEGISLATION IN A CHANGING ECONOMIC WORLD, Joseph P. Chamberlain, 30–45
Le Grand, Daniel, 10, 11
Lindsay, Eleanor, 141
LINDSAY, SAMUEL MCCUNE, The Service of the International Labor Organization to Legislative Projects, 119–123; 141
Lowe, B. E., cited, 54

MAGNUSSON, LEIFUR, The Dual Nature of Research Activities, 107–113; 141
MAHAIM, ERNEST, The Principles of International Labor Legislation, 10–17 Mandated territories, labor in, 80, 128, 129
Maritime conferences, see Seamen
Martin, P. W., cited, 64, 93
MEEKER, ROYAL, An International Civil Service, 102–106; 23, 109, 141
Mertens, 94
Migration of unemployed workers, 60
MILLER, SPENCER, JR., American Labor's Relation to the International Labor Organization, 156–161
Mitchell, Mrs. Leroy B., 139
Moore, John Bassett, 33, 34
MORELLET, Jean, Legal Competence of the International Labor Organization, 46–52
MORLEY, FELIX, International Economic Organization, 26–29
cited, 145
MYERS, JAMES, American Relations with the International Labor Office, 1919–1932, 135–145; 141
cited, 140

Neill, Charles P., 135

Ohlin, Bertil, cited, 127
Olivetti, 69, 121
Olzendam, R. M., 78, 141
Organizations, American, collaborating with International Labor Office, 142–144, 147–154
Owen, Robert, 10, 11

Patterson, Ernest Minor, 73, 133
Peel, Robert, 10
Périgord, Paul, cited, 142, 145, 147, 148
Permanent Court of International Justice: authority over states members of International Labor Organization, 98
See also Court decisions
PHELAN, E. J., How the International Labor Organization Operates, 4–9; 20, 104 PIPKIN, CHARLES W., Relations with the League of Nations, 124–134

Pône, 104
Pope, Alexander, 41
POSSIBILITIES OF UNITED STATES COLLABORATION WITH THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION, Joseph H. Willits, 168–175
Pribram, Karl, 67
Price, G. M., 139
PRINCIPLES OF INTERNATIONAL LABOR LEGISLATION, THE, Ernest Mahaim, 10–17
Public opinion, international, re labor standards, 44, 45
Public works, see Unemployment, relief methods

Rabinovitch, G. S., cited, 55
Rationalization, see Scientific management Ratzlaff, C. J., cited, 28, 94
Recommendations: definition, 5, 39, 40
  preparation, 35–37
  sample text, 204, 205
RELATIONS WITH THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS, Charles W. Pipkin, 124–134
Reninger, Henry A., 139
REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE ACADEMY FOR 1932, 208–210
Representation: credentials contested, 90, 92 equality of governments, employers, and workers, 1, 4, 13, 27, 34, 50, 86, 88, 120, 121 system of, as influencing research subjects, 112 Research: activities of International Labor Office, 4, 5, 8, 107–115, 133, 140, 141
  re forced labor, 81
  re industrial relations, 77, 78 services offered by International Labor Office, 115–118, 139, 169, 170, 191–194 subjects of, by International Labor Office, 190, 191 unemployment statistics, gathering of, 56
  United States coöperation in, 172, 173
Richardson, J. H., 78
Robinson, Henry M., 22, 23, 157, 171
  quoted, 147
Russell, Albert E., 137

Salary rates in Geneva, 105
  See also Wages
Sanger, Sophie, 104
Sayers, Dr., 139
Schürch, 94
Scientific management: as causing interest in industrial relations, 76
  as demonstrated by Henry Ford, 152
  in public administration, 72 inner reform needed, 71, 72 interest of International Labor Office in, 67–70 weaknesses of, 70
  See also Economic planning; International Management Institute
SCIENTIFIC MANAGEMENT AND ECONOMIC PLANNING, Hugo Haan, 66–74 Seamen: employment exchanges for, 57, 183 maritime conferences, 88 prevention of accidents, 184 provisions for, 59, 88, 131, 183, 187
Serrarens, 69
SERVICE OF THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION TO LEGISLATIVE PROJECTS, THE, Samuel McCune Lindsay, 119–123
SHOTWELL, JAMES T., The International Labor Organization as an Alternative to Violent Revolution, 18–25; 137 Slavery, see Labor, forced Social insurance, 188 accident compensation, 185, 186 industrial disease compensation, 186 maternity insurance, 177, 186
  unemployment, 58, 59, 132, 169, 187
Sokal, François, 68, 69
SPATES, T. G., The Employers of the United States and the International Labor Organization, 78, 141, 146–155, 168
  cited, 55
Staehle, H., 166
Statistics: unemployment, gathered by International Labor Office, 56 votes in International Labor Conference, 89–91 STEWART, BRYCE M., The International Labor Organization and Unemployment, 53–65
  cited, 55
Stewart, Ethelbert, 137

Taylor, Albion Guilford, cited, 151
Thélin, Georges, 143
Thomas, Albert, 67, 69, 73, 102, 103, 107, 125
  cited, 11
  quoted, 14, 70, 92, 93, 121, 122, 126–130, 132–134
Thompson, Gilman, 139
Thorne, Florence, 168
Tippy, Worth M., 143
Todd, R. E., 139
Trivanovitch, 168
Tzaut, 69

Unemployment: and migration, 60 and the International Labor Organization, 54–65, 140, 141 as a national problem, 53
  as an international problem, 53, 54 political aspect of, 2 relief methods: employment exchanges, 57, 58, 183 public works, 61, 169, 170
      international, 61, 62, 131, 132
    shorter hours, 2, 3, 60, 61, 169

social aspects of, 1–3
Unemployment insurance, see Social insurance
United States relations with the International Labor Organization, 135–145, 170–172, 188, 189 concessions made by the Organization, 23, 24 constitutional difficulties, 13, 21–23, 40, 41 employers' relations, 146–155
in formation of the Organization, 21–23, 135–137, 146, 147 labor's relations, 156–161 participation: objections to, 21–25, 149–151, 172 recommended, 24, 25, 144, 145, 160, 161, 168–172
re forced labor, 84
representatives connected with the Organization, 137–142 suggested forms of coöperation, 172–175
See also Organizations
Urwick, Lyndall, 69, 152

Votes in Labor Conference, analyzed, 88–91

Wages:
in relation to cost of living, United States compared with other countries, 140, 188, 189
minimum, 184
See also Salary rates in Geneva
Walker, John, 142
Webb, Mrs. Sidney, cited, 11
Weiss, Raymond, cited, 11
White, Robe Carl, 142
WILLITS, JOSEPH H., Possibilities of United States Collaboration with the International Labor Organization, 142, 168–175
WILSON, FRANCIS G., The Enforcement of International Labor Standards, 95–101
Wilson, William B., 137, 158
Wilson, Woodrow, 107, 137, 156–158
Winslow, C. E. A., 139
Wolman, Leo, 139
World peace, international responsibility for, 134
Wright, Carrol D., 135
Wright, Wade, 139

Young, Arthur H., 78
quoted, 153, 154

Zimmerman, Professor, 78